

I oppose this very much, I think if you let business' disturb our peace, it will make alot of people angry. I hate when I get calls during my private time and I want the option to say no, that is my right to say so, and most of the time I get calls from the same people over and over.